

CAGLE CARPENTER HAZLEWOOD

ATTORNEYS AT LAW

FREE Educational Training for Board Members

At Cagle Carpenter Hazlewood, we are passionate about educating community association leaders as to the legal concepts and statutory laws that govern their associations and communities. For such reason, we offer a series of classes specifically designed for members of a community association's Board of Directors. Our Board Member Training classes focus exclusively on federal and Texas laws that govern Texas subdivision and condominium community associations and cover all of the core concepts necessary for Board Members to become informed and knowledgeable leaders in their associations. The classes are open to Board Members of all Texas community associations, even if the community association is not a client of the firm. In addition, free refreshments will be provided to all attendees.

Our Board Member Training consists of six total hours of no-cost instruction that is broken down into four classes offered once each quarter over the course of a year.

There is no required sequence to the classes, so participants may start at any time.

Board Member Training

Board Member Training consists of the following four classes:

HOAs and Governing Documents

Board and Membership Meetings

Assessment Collection

Covenant Enforcement

Dates, Times and Locations

Classes will be offered quarterly in Austin, Dallas, and San Antonio. To get more information on the dates, times and location/address of the classroom facilities for each city, please go to our website: www.cchlaw.com.

Registration

To register for a class please visit: www.cchlaw.com. Registration for each class is limited based on the capacity of the classroom facility, which varies per location. Accordingly, please register for classes as early as possible to ensure availability.

Cost (hint: zero!)

All Board Member Training courses are the same cost:

ABSOLUTELY FREE!

For detailed course descriptions and registration information, please visit

877.336.0228 | www.cchlaw.com