Peter Kerr is an Associate in the Austin office of Cagle Carpenter Hazlewood. In his practice he focuses on the representation of condominium, residential, and mixed-use property owner associations in litigation, including matters seeking injunctive and equitable relief related to enforcement of restrictive covenants and claims for breach of contract, negligence and employment-related claims.

Peter has additional experience litigating claims of discrimination, harassment, retaliation, wrongful discharge, trade secret misappropriation, tortious interference, unfair competition and other business-related claims before state and federal courts and various administrative agencies.

In conjunction with his litigation practice, Peter provides counsel and preventive advice concerning a wide range of federal and state laws and regulations directly impacting his clients. He works to provide his clients with creative, cost-effective solutions to litigation and management issues.

Peter is a veteran of Operation Iraqi Freedom, and is also fluent in Spanish.
